RE: In the Matter of Section 63.71 Application of Qwest Corporation for Authority to Discontinue Certain Services – WC Docket No. 07-72

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On May 10, 2007, Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") filed, via hard copy, the attached Withdrawal of Section 63.71 Application to discontinue cash payments/free wireless service on or near the Navajo reservation lands in New Mexico. Today, by this submission, Qwest is re-filing its Withdrawal, via ECFS, in WC Docket No. 07-72.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at the above contact information should you have any questions.

Respectfully,

/s/ Lynn S. Starr

WITHDRAWAL OF SECTION 63.71 APPLICATION

Qwest Corporation ("Qwest"). through undersigned counsel, hereby withdraws its Application to Discontinue Services, filed on March 28, 2007. In that Application to Discontinue, Qwest was seeking to discontinue cash payments/free wireless service on or near the Navajo reservation lands in New Mexico. With the transfer of control of telecommunications assets from Qwest located on or near Navajo lands in the State of New Mexico to Sacred Wind Communications, Inc. ("Sacred Wind"),¹ which closed on December 15, 2006, Qwest no longer offers any regulated telecommunications services in that area. The transfer to Sacred Wind included the "held order" customers who were the subject of the above-referenced discontinuance application. Any wireline telephone service that these "held order" customers may receive in the future will be provided by Sacred Wind. Yet, as previously ordered by the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission, Qwest continued providing cash payments/free wireless service to customers who had been in held order status with Qwest prior to the transfer.

¹ The Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") granted Qwest authority to transfer service to Sacred Wind on April 26, 2006. See 21 FCC Rcd 6145 (2006).

Qwest will now discontinue the provision of cash payments/free wireless service, but understands that it does not require Commission authority to do so.

As such, Qwest hereby withdraws its March 28, 2007 Section 63.71 Application.

Respectfully submitted,

QWEST CORPORATION
